tended towards the city, until the wind fortunately changed. The territory covered by the fire is about ten acres. On this were 10,000,000 feet of lumber belonging to Mr. Booth, valued at $150,000; six railway cars, with lumber belonging to the Export Lumber Company; the Parry Sound Railway bridge, and the Cedar street public school, valued at $5,000. Several smaller buildings were also burned.

The fire burnt itself out shortly after midnight. It was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

burglary in John A. Engel's meat market. at 251 East Fifty-seventh street, on Aug. 15. On the day mentioned the burglars broke in the cellar door, went into the ice-box and carried off $200
worth of meat, including sides of beef, dressed mutton and veal.

A truck must have been utilized with which to carry away the property, and Capt Reilly told Commissioner Murray that if the policemen had been alert the burglary could not possibly have occurred. Decision was reserved.

He will have many more, too, for he lies in Chambers Street Hospital with a number of knife wounds in his head, which were inflicted by Angelo Marcott, a saloon-keeper at 16 Baxter street. Fresco went into Marcott's place at steet. Fresco went into Marcott's place at steet for some Reggio in the side. He was plainly looking for trouble, and there is an action hand in Marcott's to give trouble searchers a surfeit of that article.

Presently Fresco and Marcott began to play cards, and the game hadn't progressed very far when Fresco accused Marcott of cheating. Then there was a now.

When it was all over Fresco was found with his head gashed in three places, crying out that Marcott had cut him.

An ambulance was called, and when the policemen began to look for Marcott as they carted Fresco to the hospital he was nowhere to be found. They are looking for him yet.

Different Stories.

Police Capt. Strauss, of the East Sixty-seventh street station, received a report to-day on the alleged clubbing of Thos. Bransfield, eighteen years old, who is at the Presbyterian Hospital with a fractured skull, said to have been caused by Policeman Michael Collins. Bransfield was taken to the station

Bransfield was taken to the station early yesterday morning by the policemman on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. He said he saw three men fighting on Seventy-third street and ran towards them. Two of the men ran away. He captured Bransfield, and on reaching the station with him found he was injured.

Capt. Straus's report says two of his detectives visited Bransfield at the hospital, and he told three separate stories, and finally acknowledged that he did not know who struck him. This, the police claim, completely exonerates Policeman Collins. They think that the injuries were inflicted by the two men with whom he was fighting, and they will endeavor to locate them.
